

MISS DOLLIE ARMSTRONG DESPITE HEAVY VOTE OF OTHER CONTESTANTS STILL LEADS PIANO RACE

Mrs. Fryer, Developing Into Formidable Contestant, Says She Will Win—More Prizes Given in December

Despite the heavy vote cast yesterday, the positions of the candidates remains the same this morning. Miss Dollie Armstrong still holding the lead position by a plurality of nearly 1500. Miss Williams made a gain of almost 1000 yesterday and is rapidly forging to the front again. Miss Mildred Voris, the child candidate, is making good progress and more than holding her own. Mrs. Fryer received a heavy vote yesterday. She announces that she is in the race to win. The Silver Belt has always considered Mrs. Fryer a strong candidate and has believed that when she got down to real earnest work there would be something doing in contest circles. Misses Kinsman, Carvel and Suter received a nice vote yesterday and will be with the leaders at the close. They have many warm supporters and with a little personal effort they certainly will make a fine showing.

The Silver Belt has decided to add a number of additional prizes during December, which will fully compensate the real workers for the effort expended, even though they should not win one of the prizes offered. We are only waiting to see how many real workers may develop during the next few days, and there will be prizes for the full corps. The Silver Belt does nothing by halves. The prizes offered will be beyond the expectations of the contestants. Let us all get to work.

ADDITIONAL SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

New Gold Coins—

Justice Hinson Thomas, yesterday, was proudly showing one of the new quarter-eagle gold coins, ten of which have just reached town, having been sent for by President J. N. Porter of the First National bank. The coins, with the figures sunk in instead of embossed, so that they may be conveniently stacked up, are also striking in their design. An Indian head appears on one side, with the word "Liberty" over it, and thirteen stars circling around, and the date at the bottom. On the other side appears an eagle which looks as though it were trampling and had a crack in the neck. "In God We Trust" appears in three lines over the bird's shoulder, while just under its breast is "E Pluribus Unum," also in straight lines, leaving the circle to be filled with "United States of America, 2 1/2 Dollars."

Opium Joints Bailed—

A fancy opium smoking outfit was seized last night by Acting Marshal Cochran and Deputy Marshal Edwards in a room at the McKevitt house, just after the officers had swooped down upon a Chinese laundress who was a bit too hospitable in allowing a countryman to use his outfit. The plant confiscated at the McKevitt house is an expensive one, with a silver tipped pipe and fancy bowls of Chinese ware on a lacquered tray. The "pipe hitters," however, made their escape.

Hamm Trial Begun—

The trial of the J. W. Hamm $12,000 suit against the city of Globe for personal injuries to his wife in a runaway alleged to have been caused by fireworks on the streets, July 4, 1907, was begun yesterday in the district court, Judge F. S. Nave presiding. Mrs. Hamm was on the stand the greater part of the time, explaining the character of her injuries. Several other witnesses were heard for the plaintiff, and J. W. Bacon was subpoenaed by Mr. Hamm. Attorneys McCallum and Jones appeared for the plaintiff, while the city was represented by City Attorney Allred, Dr. Fox, the health officer, assisting the attorney in the medical work.

Booth Buys Lots—

The East Globe Land & Trust company has sold to G. H. Booth two lots at Fifth and Maple streets for $450. Mr. Booth will build a $2500 house.

New Railroads on Map—

The new map of the Southern Pacific, which has just been issued, shows, in the guise of new features, two little red lines that mean a tremendous lot to the people of Globe. One of these lines starts from Lordsburg, N. M., comes up through Guthrie, and joins the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern at Solomonville—the other starts from San Carlos, about thirty-five miles from Globe, and joins the line already built from Winkelman to Phoenix. The presence of these lines on the map may be taken to indicate that the company contemplates early construction of the long mooted short cut, which will bring its main line as near to this city as San Carlos, shortening the distance to Phoenix by several hundred miles and materially lessening the run to El Paso and Los Angeles, cutting down fares and freight.

Real Estate Deals—

The Globe Real Estate company yesterday sold to Clara E. Kyle four lots in East street for $1,000, the purchaser intending to erect a $2,000 house; also, four lots to E. C. Robinson, who will establish a concrete block manufactory in East Globe.

SOCIETY

Pinal Mountain lodge was taken by storm last night, when the Pythian sisters swooped down upon the Knights with shouts of laughter. The lodge had just adjourned, and the members were preparing to leave for their homes when the ladies, about thirty in number, invaded the castle with a suddenness that took the breath away from the knightly ones. It was a surprise, all right, and thoroughly well organized, with plenty of good things to eat and drink and lots of fun. Of course, one of the main topics of discussion as the excitement of the first moments wore off, was the big Knights of Pythias picnic at Wightman's ranch on Thanksgiving day, when all knights, with their friends, ladies and gentlemen, are expected to be on hand.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. P. J. Cole in North Hill street.

The Ladies' Guild will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. W. Brookner.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE IRIS.

A good crowd attended the Iris last night to see the change of program and everyone pronounced it one of the most amusing bills seen at the Iris for many weeks.

Miss Westfall made her biggest local hit in her German character song, and was allowed to retire only after responding to three encores. Her illustrated song was also very well rendered and heartily applauded.

Ed Keith pleased the audience with his roon songs and stories and kept the laughs coming strong and often. The moving pictures were up to the Iris standard. The feature is a reproduction of the popular drama, "The Devil," and it is very interesting. There are three comedies which keep the house in an uproar from start to finish. The same bill continues for the remainder of the week.

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED.

I hereby accept the challenge of George Beardon to a wrestling match in Globe, $100 forfeit being posted by each side in the Silver Belt office, and the articles signed in that office Friday evening, Nov. 20, each man to weigh in at 165 pounds.
